

Christmas in May Chaska

Celebrating 25+ Years of Helping Others

Homeowner Application

If your home is in need of repairs that you cannot do yourself or afford to hire others to accomplish, please consider applying for Christmas in May Chaska.

Christmas in May Chaska will be Saturday, May 6, 2023. On that day, volunteers supervised by skilled craftsmen will make repairs on selected homes of persons who are elderly, have a disability, or are low to moderate income. These repairs include painting, carpentry, landscaping, yard clean-up, and an energy audit.

The simple criteria that you must meet to be eligible to benefit from Christmas in May Chaska includes:

- Be a homeowner and currently living in the home.
- Homeowner(s) must be current on outstanding mortgages (and show proof of) filed against the property.
- Be elderly or have a disability or financial hardship that keeps you from doing the work yourself.
- Promise your cooperation and participation to the extent that you are able.
- Your home must be located within the city limits of Chaska.

Applications are due by Friday, March 17, 2023.

All submitted applications will be reviewed by the Christmas in May Chaska Board of Directors. If your home is considered for selection, you will be notified, and an authorized person will visit you at your home to get more information about your housing needs.

You will not be expected to pay for any labor or materials. We only ask that able-bodied members of your family assist the volunteers whatever way they can.

Please remember, this is a non-profit, volunteer community effort. Christmas in May Chaska is supported by community leaders including Chaska elected leaders, Chaska service clubs, Chaska businesses, area faith based community, and many others.
